THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR

TUESDAY, AUGUST 30, 1870.

THE INQUISITION—NOT THE HOLY, BUT THE HOLDEN PEARSON KU KLUX INQUISITION.

We intimated the other day, that the real object of the Pearson-Dick-Settle investigation had in this city under the pretense of ferretting out crime, was not to find out who killed this one or the other, but to make out the charge which Southern Radicals like Holden, Pool, Pearson, Settle and Boyden had made and published North, that there was such a thing in North Carolina as an organization of Ku Klux, and to this organization was chargeable all the crime committed in North Carolina for the past two years, and that said Ku Klux organization is identified with the Democratic Conservative party in North Carolina.

The inquisitors Pearson, Dick, Settle, Boyden and Dick Badger, in the investigation of the Caswell cases found it an uphill business fixing crime or Ku Kluxism upon Wiley, Kerr, Roan, Bowe, Williamson, Griffith and others. Indeed there was no taint of crime or Ku Kluxism upon their garments, and truth and justice demanded that Wiley, Roan and Mitchell should have been discharged as the rest were without taint. No special pleading can justify the inquisitors in holding them longer to bail; yet in pity to poor Holden who had staked his all upon the conviction of some one as the murderer of Stephens, without regard to justice, law or right, these three gentlemen are held to appear at the next Superior Court of Caswell. Of course no Grand Jury on earth, possessing a speck of integrity will find a true bill against them, and then the matter is expected to rest, after all the outrage, persecution and expense, detention and restraint of their liberty, they have suffered. If there is any tribunal of justice this side the Great Assize, we hope they will not let it rest, but that these persecutors and inquisitors from beginning to end, shall be made to answer for their outrages and cruelties upon these men, to the fullest extent.

We learn that the Inquisition, having disposed of the Caswell cases, find easier work aided by Boyd in investigating Alamance Ku Kluxism. Alamance it seems has several hasty witnesses like Boyd, and they are made ready to hand by the Inquisition conducted at night,—that body holding its sessions day and night.

MORE ABOUT THE INQUISITION.

On last Saturday, Wm. Kirpatrick of Alamance, was brought to this city as a witness against the Ku Klux. After two or three preliminary examinations before the secret inquisition, conducted chiefly by Boyden and Badger—the B B's, he was then taken by a bench warrant issued by Judge Pearson. John Long is the witness against him. John is a willing witness, and his swearing irons are hotter than Jim Boyd's were. John Long has been hanging about Kirk's camp for some time and has established a character for himself which makes him worthy of the truly Loyal League. He is charged with burning a school house for which he has had Gray and others arrested. He is charged with stealing hogs, flour and other needful articles of house keeping, with which Littlefield supplied himself, by manipulating State Railroad bonds,—the facilities for manipulating having been furnished by Gov. Holden, who gave him power and place,—making him State Printer, Binder, Railroad President, &c., and all after Littlefield had been presented by the Grand Jury of Wake for attempting to bribe the General Assembly.

But to John Long. When we were in Kirk's camp at Company Shops, as soon as a hog would show himself the prisoners would cry out, John Long! John Long! The hog would run like a thief at the cry police! police!

With such a witness as John Long it will be wonderful if somebody is not bound over.

FRANCE AND PRUSSIA.

After making all due allowance for the incorrectness and confusion of the telegrams, it is palpable that the French will be forced, in a few days, to risk the decision of the contest upon the seige of Paris. The Prussian army, under the Crown Prince, must be already in the neighborhood of Paris, and other Prussian forces are hastening to his assistance. The real position of MacMahon or Bazaine is not known, but if they were already at Paris, the result could not be doubtful, if we are to judge from the past.

Providence seems to have allowed Napoleon to be lured into a war with Prussia, for his speedy destruction and the blotting out of the Bonapartes as rulers in Europe. On no other theory can we account for the failure of French tactics, French strategy and French prowess. A third rate European power ought to have made as good a fight as France has in this contest. Henceforth, unless all Europe interferes to prevent the aggrandizement of Prussia, France will be known in Europe as a second rate power, and history, for the next hundred years, will record the prowess and glory of the Empire of Germany. We shall not be surprised to hear of the capture or abdication of Louis Napoleon any day, and of a revolution in Paris and overtures for peace.

JUDGE PEARSON'S OPINION.

We beg the readers of the SENTINEL to carefully read Judge Pearson's opinion as proceeded in our columns to-day, and note the reasons given for the extraordinary course pursued. Then carefully go back and read the entire evidence, and then say, what you think of it.

BENCH WARRANT CASES BEFORE JUDGE PEARSON.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

STATE VS. JAMES T MITCHELL.

SATURDAY, August 27.

J. B. Hemphill was sworn and examined. Lives in Person county about a mile from the Caswell line. Was in Yanceyville on the day Stephens was murdered; got there about 9 o'clock; came from P. Wallace's. Went to the Court House and went into the grand jury room. Went into the meeting in the morning but didn't know when it adjourned. Brought his dinner with him and ate it in front of the Court House. Saw Stephens in the grand jury room sitting on a bench, spoke to him; was on good terms with him. Did not stay long in the grand jury room; went there to pay Deputy Sheriff Jordan for levying on a horse. In the afternoon went up the steps going to the meeting; met Wiley and Stephens coming down; Stephens was a step or two behind Wiley. There was a tolerable good crowd at the meeting; didn't stay longer than from 2 to 10 minutes. Saw Mr. Kerr standing; am too deaf to tell if he was speaking. Wanted to see Stephens on private business and went to look for him; looked in front of the Court House and did not see him; went to all the doors but the two lower ones and found them fastened. Saw Mr. Wiley standing in the passage near the grand jury room by himself; didn't speak to him; went to the south door and Mitchell and John Lee were standing outside talking. Mitchell was laughing; asked them if they were talking secrets. Mitchell first said "no," and then said "yes," told them to talk on, was deaf and could not hear them. Went to Mrs. Stephens' to look for the deceased. Mrs. Stephens asked if he (the witness) had not met him, as he had got his dinner and gone back. Returning to the Court House to see about matters connected with the horse and to search for Stephens; went back to Mrs. Stephens about an hour or an hour and a half by sun. Mrs. Stephens asked if he had seen Mr. Stephens; told her no; she appeared to be very uneasy, looking in different directions, asked him to go back and look for Mr. Stephens; went back; met a yellow boy who lived with Stephens, asked him if he had seen Stephens, the boy replied no, went on to the Court-House and got there a little before dark. Met Henry Stephens and inquired for the deceased. Henry had not seen him. Believed he went to Groom's and one or two other places inquiring before going to the Court House, anyhow got to the Court House just about dark. Don't recollect meeting any one that had seen the deceased. Henry Stephens sent to Dr. Roan for the keys. Was at the Court House when the keys arrived and the search was made, but did not go from room to room with them. Went into the passage and then went around to the rear of the building. About 10 o'clock thought he discovered a dim light in the room where the body was found; told them to keep a good watch. Stayed at the Court House watching around until 2 o'clock and then went to Mrs. Stephens', returned to the Court House about daylight. Those that were there had a box moving from window to window, when they got to the window of the room where the body was found, heard some one cry out, "he is dead," got on the box but it was some time before anything could be seen; at last saw the body as it had been set up with the rope around the neck. Went in the room when the door was opened but was soon made to leave by Sheriff Griffith, who said none but the jury of inquest must come in.

When he saw Wiley and Stephens going down stairs there were some people going before them and some coming after them; thought one of those going before was old man Roberts, but would not be positive.

Was in the Mexican war; was in Company F, Paines' regiment. Geo. Williamson was Captain, David Johnson 1st Lieutenant, Robert Wiley 2nd Lieutenant and James T. Mitchell 3rd Lieutenant. The men sometimes practiced with a lasso; would sometimes get the Mexicans to show them how to use it. He never learned much about it. Couldn't say that the officers ever practiced, though they might have done so a little. Did not see Wiley go into any room that day. Did not tell Judge Tourgee that he belonged to the Ku Klux. Never belonged to any secret organization. [Witness, on being asked if he belonged to the Invisible Empire, by Mr. Badger, replied that he did not know what they were.] An old man at Person Court House gave him some signs, (showed them); he went immediately and gave them to Judge Tourgee. Did not tell Stephens that his house would be attacked on a certain night, but told him that he expected it would be some time, and advised him to be on his guard; told him so because public sentiment was so strong against him.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Got to Yanceyville about 9 o'clock in the morning; not well acquainted in the town; wanted to see Stephens on private business, was on friendly terms with Stephens; saw him between 9 or 10 o'clock in the grand jury room; spoke to him; don't remember ever having any more conversation with him afterwards; did'nt see him any more until saw him coming down the steps with Wiley. Had been to Stephens' house on several occasions. Went up to the meeting in the afternoon; saw Mr. Kerr standing up but did'nt know whether he was speaking or not, deaf and could not tell, did'nt look at his mouth; Kerr generally speaks in a strong voice; saw Mr. S. P. Hill get up several times; paid very little attention to what was going on. Did'nt know Bedford Brown; didn't speak to Stephens when on the steps; didn't hear either Wiley or Stephens say anything; could'nt say positively that he knew any of the persons before or in the rear of them; had since thought that the features of one of them in front resembled those of Mr. Bowe. Saw Wiley afterwards going out of the front door. It was between 2 and 4 o'clock when he met Wiley and Stephens together on the steps and it was probably 10 minutes after when he saw Wiley going out of the door alone. Went to the Grand Jury room after leaving the meeting; door was locked, the doors of the two lawyers offices and clerks office were all fastened; not satisfied that he tried the doors of the two lower rooms. Saw Mitchell and Lee at the South door; Mitchell was laughing heartily; couldn't hear what they said. Went to Stephens', was told that he had had his dinner and was gone; stayed at Stephens' an hour or an hour and a half; Mrs. Stephens was not uneasy then. On returning to the Court House saw a good many people leaving.—Went to see Mr. Hill upon some business, afterwards returned to Mrs. Stephens' and she then appeared uneasy; thought she asked Thos. Stephen's if he had seen Stephens. Was asked by her to go back and look for him; don't know whether it was Thomas or Henry that returned to the Court House with him. Didn't see the box when it was brought, but saw them moving it from window to window in the morning. That night thought he discovered something like a dim light in the room where the body was afterwards found; went to the window in the morning and saw something like blood on the bricks; didn't come out of the passage at daybreak, though he went up to the door once or twice during the night. When the body was found next morning went into the room with some others, but was not allowed to stay by Sheriff Griffith, who said that only the jury of inquest could stay; then went into the Register's office, took a seat on the bench and looked at a pamphlet; heard either Haralson or McKee remark that "this was like Mexico." Never saw Mitchell particularly engaged in practicing with a lasso.

Jesse Griffith examined. Was in the meeting on Saturday; saw Logan Totten, who was Secretary of the meeting; took a seat behind Totten, and was certain that he (Totten) did not leave until the meeting adjourned. The meeting had broken up and a good many had left when it was called to the attention of the Chairman that delegates to the Convention at Greensboro, had not been appointed, when those that remained were stopped and the list of delegates was made out, and this caused the Secretary to be detained after everybody else had gone. Knew Mitchell well, his character was always good; knew Womack, he had the character of a loafer, with no visible means of support; if he (Womack) had any character for truth he (the witness) never knew it; never knew of Womack's teaching school.

J. C. Pinnix examined. Has known Mitchell 10 or 15 years, his character always good among the people of Caswell; knew Womack, his character had both as a boy and a man, bad as a loafing, trifling fellow; had heard him charged with lying and stealing. Knew Stephens, he was neither very stout or very weak, weighed probably about 140 pounds and was about 5 feet, 9 inches high, was tolerably quick and active.

W. B. Bowe examined. Knew Mitchell since he was a little boy, his character in the community has always been good as a boy and man. Knew Womack for 10 years, had the character of a loafer; had heard him charged with dishonesty.

Wm. Smith examined. Did'nt know whether he left Yanceyville with Mitchell; was with him within a space of 3 miles from town; traveled with him about 5 miles; Mitchell stopped at Mr. Pinchback's. Did'nt know whether Mitchell overtook him or he (witness) overtook Mitchell; met him about 5 o'clock; was travelling on horseback, so was Mitchell.

CROSS EXAMINED

Didn't see anybody at Pinchback's, don't remember looking to see if anybody was about.

J. C. Williamson examined. Saw Mitchell when he left, went while Col. Bowe was speaking. Saw Mitchell again when he (Mitchell) was passing his (witness') gate; lives 3 miles from Yanceyville; left Yanceyville about 5 o'clock; Mr. Wiley was at the pump watering his horse when he left. Had just got to his gate when Mitchell passed. Mitchell lives 8 or 9 miles from Yanceyville. Mr. Pinchback and Mitchell married sisters. Known Mitchell from boyhood, and never heard anything alleged against him.

CROSS EXAMINED.

When Mitchell passed the gate he was in company with Mr. Smith, Mr. Mebane, Col. Long and Gen. William Lea.

James Hopkins examined. Was in the Assessor's room in the afternoon. Got through the press of business and was about to lock the door. Saw Hemphill sitting in the window, went up to him and said "lets go up to the meeting;" Hemphill got up and went out; don't know that he went up to the meeting. Got up to the meeting when Mr. Kerr was speaking, left the room just as Mr. Hodnett was about to close his speech, went back into the Assessor's office and kept open from that time until about 6 o'clock.

The testimony in the case being closed, Judge Battle addressed the Court saying that the counsel for the defence were willing to submit the case of cases.

Chief Justice Pearson said that there was no evidence against Joseph Fowler, and that he must be discharged, but would take the cases of Wiley, Roan and Mitchell under consideration and would render a decision upon them on Monday next.

The Court then adjourned until Monday morning 9 o'clock.

MORNING SESSION.

MONDAY MORNING, August 29.

At 9 o'clock, Justices Pearson, Dick and Settle took their seats in the Supreme Court room, when Justice Pearson read the following decision on the Caswell county bench warrant cases:

STATE VS WILEY, MITCHELL AND ROAN.

After a careful consideration of the evidence, we are of opinion that "probable cause" has been shown.

On a charge of capital felony, the rule is, "when the guilt is manifest, or the presumption strong, the party should be committed to jail; when the evidence does not produce entire conviction, but makes in the mind a belief of the party's guilt, security to answer the charge should be required."

It is considered that the prisoners be severally recognized in the sum of $5,000, with two or more sufficient securities, to appear at the next term of the Superior Court, to be held for the county of Caswell, to answer a charge of the murder of John W. Stephens; Wiley and Mitchell as principals, and Roan accessary before the fact.

In this stage of the proceeding it would not be proper to enter into a critical analysis of the evidence, but it seems to us to be proper to set out in a general way, the ground on which our conclusion rests.

1st, Strange as it is, the fact is final, that, on the 21st May, 1870, when a large number of the citizens of Caswell were assembled in the Court House, at a meeting of the Democratic party, in the day time, the Senator of that county, a Republican, was choked down to death by means of a cord about nine feet long, with a slipping noose adjusted near the middle. The intelligent testimony of Dr. Roan pins the fact that the murder was done in the room formerly occupied by the Clerk and Master in Equity, where the body was found on the next morning with the cord buried in the neck to the level of the skin, a stab on each side of the neck, and a stab in the breast.

Dr. Roan gave it as his opinion, being an expert, that the stabs were made after the blood had near all receded to the heart, which accounted for the small effusion of blood; and further, that the choking was done in that room, for the reason that the cord had not slipped from its first print where it was imbedded in the flesh, and the spirts of blood on the wood in front and the wall at the side of the body could not have made the impression it did, except as it jetted from the wound. So the corpus delicti and the place is final.

2nd, As to the time: We are satisfied the murder was committed while the meeting was going on up stairs; the deceased having left the meeting and come down at the instance of Wiley. After the meeting adjourned, (about half after 4 o'clock,) and until the Assessor locked his door (about 6 o'clock) (this room adjoining the room where the murder was done,) a number of persons were in his room and in the passage, so the murder could not have been committed during that period, without a general alarm.

The testimony that the deceased was seen after six o'clock, in the public square, walking to the east, turning the corner of the railing and then going South, is unsatisfactory. There is no trace of his ever coming back to the Court House, and no evidence tending to show that he might have been killed outside and his body brought and put in that room. By half an hour of sunset his brothers and friends were looking for him, and after nightfall "a guard" was set around the Court House.

3rd. As to the person. The testimony makes out "probable cause," and would be sufficient to require commitment, provided the witnesses are to be relied on—that is a question peculiarly fit for a jury. How much reliance is to be put on the testimony of reluctant white witnesses and of persons who have been slaves and are now citizens? This is a practical question, and the learning of the law does not aid much in its solution.

So that our duty is discharged by requiring bail.

No motive is assigned for this murder, except "political animosity." The circumstances show it was done on premeditation with fatal skill, by a number of conspirators, (either taking part in the killing or on the keeping watch and being on the look out) to whom the unsuspecting victim was led for sacrifice.

Possibly at the trial further light may be thrown upon a deed which now leaves a foul mark on the reputation of the county of Caswell.

PEARSON,
DICK,
SETTLE,
Justices.

The security required was immediately tendered and accepted, as follows: Messrs. B. F. Williamson, G. J. Stronach and H. O. Parker, of Wake, and Messrs. E. B. Withers, J. R. Winston and R. B. Watt, of Caswell.

Mr. Badger objected to the latter gentlemen as securities, stating that it was against a rule of law for counsel to be recognized as surety for their clients, but his objection was overruled.

The Chief Justice then announced that they were ready to take up the Alamance cases.

J. T. Trollinger and Thomas D. Gray were called and did not answer, and their default was recorded.

Mr. Badger stated that the prisoners would probably be down on the 11 o'clock train, by which many of the State's witnesses were also expected, whereupon the cases were, by consent, put off until 3 o'clock, P. M., to-day.

THE ALAMANCE BENCH WARRANT CASES.

EVENING SESSION.

The Court sat at 4 o'clock, but owing to the fact that the prisoners had not arrived, nothing was done until 5 o'clock.

The case of the State vs. W. C. Tarpley, Wm. Fogleman, Ruffin Fogleman and Emsley Fogleman, was taken up. [John T. Trollinger and George Mebane, included in the warrant with these, was returned as having fled the State, and George Anthony and Thomas Tate, included in the same warrant, as hiding themselves, and capiases ordered to issue for them.]

John W. Long and Walter Thornton and Kirkpatrick were called as witnesses for the prosecution; the two first only were sworn.

The counsel for the State proposed that a stenographer present should be employed by the State to take down the evidence, and it was so ordered.

John W. Long was then called and examined.

Joined the organization of the "White Brotherhood" in Dr Moore's office, at Company Shops, thinks about 1st of December 1868, George Anthony and several others present; don't remember all the oath, it bound him not to reveal the secrets of the organization, nor tell who was present at the meetings, to assist any member in distress; its object stated to be to overthrow the Republicans; oath bound him to obey the orders of the chiefs. Went to Dr. Moore's office to join; it was not a regular meeting.

The next meeting attended was below Haw River; many were present in disguise; (witness gives the names of several.) The disguise consisted of a white gown and white head piece with horns attached, through which were eye holes. There were several initiated at the time I was, (gives some names) the By-Laws were read but no orders were given. (A long white robe and head piece were here exhibited, which the witness stated was the disguise adopted by the order.) The next meeting was in the woods near Sellar's mill; (gives the names of several who were present and some who were initiated.) At this meeting —— Mebane proposed to have a coffin made to put at the door of Daniel McAdams, and the party selected who was to make it.

The sign for entering the camp is, two slaps of the hands. Instructions are given at the meetings to stand by each other.—Don't recollect where the next meeting was held; think it was the one at which it was determined to whip Sandy Sellars. They used no Bible in giving the oath, only held up the right hand; penalty for violation of the oath is death; no particular method of administering it. They sometimes frightened those initiated by puting a rope round their necks to test them. The night Sandy Sellars was whipped, sixteen went to his house, took him out some three or four hundred yards, tied him up and stripped him and each one present gave him two licks. The next meeting was in the woods near Hatty Smith's; that night Dr. Tarpley and George Fawcett were initiated. Thinks this was in January 1869.

Witness left the organization in June 1869—has not been in a meeting in fourteen months.

At the next meeting a letter was ordered to be written, which was done by John Trollinger, to be sent to Badham and Hardin, at Graham. I and —— carried the letter; it was put in a split stick and thrown at his door.

At the next meeting Dr. Moore was to be initiated. He did not come and I and Tom Tate went after him; I called him out on pretense of wanting him to see my wife, and we then told him what we wanted, but he said he could not go then and put it off for a week.

It was said in the camp that James Causey was talking too much, and it was agreed that he should be talked to, and if he went on he was to be disposed of. On the same night the order was received that Caswell Holt was to be whipped, it came from Anthony's camp. Two nights after, the Fogletmans came by for witness to go to execute the order, but he did not go; heard them say afterward that they struck nine three stripes each. Several were carried before Badham and Hardin and they proved an alibi. The parties arrested were not those engaged in the whipping. Soon after that two camps met at the Forks of the Road, near Whitsett's, to determine what should be done with Cas. Holt for having the men arrested; some proposed whipping again, others hanging. Dr. Tarpley said, dead men tell no tales, and on taking the vote it was determined he should be hung or put out of the way, and camp No. 10 was to carry out the order. Witness was selected to carry the order to that camp. But Jacob A. Long, who was chief of the county, said it would not do, and stopped it.

George Anthony and Thomas Tate have gone to Missouri. George Mebane and Henry Robinson have also gone; saw John Trollinger last Wednesday at the Shops.

The cloth for the disguises was bought in the stores; members wives made them; each member furnished his own disguise.

There were ten camps in the county, comprising, as witness heard, seven or eight hundred members. The object was to prevent colored men rising and to put down the Republican party, by going round and frightening the negroes. They were to hang round and get on the jury when a man was tried, and to clear him, and to swear for each other right or wrong, and execute all orders without inquiry. The chiefs of the camps were, John T. Trollinger, Wm. Tickell, Jasper N. Wood, Jacob A. Long, A. Murray, Joseph Fawcett, Geo. Anthony, David Mebane, and two others not remembered. Jacob Long was chief of the county; don't know who was above him, except that it was said in the camp that Andrew Johnson was at the head of the organization in the United States. Jacob Long left the State about the time the first arrests were made.

Don't know of a camp ever going out of the county; heard there were none of the White Brotherhood, as they were called, in Caswell; 'twas said there were 1200 in Guilford, never heard of any in Chatham or Orange.

The sign is putting the right hand on the right side of the coat collar, which is answered by putting the left hand on the left side. There is a sign in shaking hands; pressing the thumb on the middle knuckle. The sign of distress is "Shiloh."

CROSS EXAMINED.

Have visited three camps; belonged to camp No. 4; there were about thirty members in that camp. It embraced about three miles square, including Company Shops, but on the North side of the Railroad.—Remember the following as members: Jno. T. Trollinger, Thomas Gray, Geo. Toler, Dr. Tarpley, Wm. Ruffin and Emsley Fogleman, myself, William, Ruffin, Green and John Andrews, Dr. Andrews, Bunnian Andrews, Thomas Tate, George Mebane, John Robinson, Henry Robinson, Thomas Robinson, Wm. and Joseph Kirkpatrick, Jas. Stockard, Robert Stockard, George Fawcett, Dr. John A. Moore, and others.

I entered in December, 1868, and remained in it till June, 1869; had a fuss with Green Andrews and think he blackballed me out. On re-organizing they left me out, had been true to them; have been at home since and they have not harmed me. Don't know how it became known that I belonged to it. I made my affidavit 30th of July—went to Wm. Albright at Graham, of my own accord—heard that Holden had said, if any one would confess he should not be hurt—great many went, sixteen before I went—don't know how many more confessed—heard of 700. Lives 1½ of a mile north of Graham—they met any where in the woods, not twice in same place, district of camp 4 about 2 miles square—nearly every body belonged to the camp, all Democrats. I was a Democrat, voted the other ticket at election

TO THE COURT.

Heard the Chief say about 700 in the County, heard the same at general meeting, heard of several leaving it, don't know how many in 1870. Knew nothing about the organization, there were three negroes whipped by our camp, Nathan Trollinger and made him peek his p—— with his knife, rubbed Sandy Sellars back with a rough persimmon stick, and Caswell Holt. These whippings were all while I was a member, all before June '68. Sellars was whipped in January, Caswell Holt in February or January and Trollinger about February 1869. In April agreed to kill Caswell Holt in corn planting time. Saw several planting. It was to be done on Friday after the meeting on Monday and I carried the order on Tuesday.

(The act against disguise was read—ratified April 12th 1869.)

The Messrs. Fogleman and Mr. Gray were excused for delay and the recognizances of the former continued. Wm. Kirkpatrick, John Andrews, R. M. Stockard, Wm. M. Andrews, Ruffin Andrews, Walter Thorington and Emsly Fogleman were recognized by Green Andrews and Dr. J. A. Moore.

Adjourned to 9 o'clock to morrow.

Price $175.00.

This invention of power, whereby all friction is overcome, its simplicity, economy and durability, astonishes all who see it; and the more so, that a power so simple should have remained so long unappropriated. The strain is wholly borne by the Bed Plate, Follower Block, and two 1¼ inch square iron bars, which is capable of sustaining a strain of 120,000 lbs. Thus giving much more strength than is required. WITH THIS PRESS TWO MEN CAN PACK A BALE OF COTTON WITH EASE IN EIGHT MINUTES WEIGHING FROM 400 to 500 lbs.

One man can do the work, only requiring longer time.

It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the lint direct from the Gin or Lint Room, as may be desired. Thus doing away with baskets, and frequent handling of the lint.

It is light in weight, can be taken down or put up in 30 minutes and transported on a two Horse Wagon.

I believe it unequalled by any Press for power, convenience and durability.

Press complete—Depth Cotton Box 9 feet. Size Bale 4½ feet x 22x22 inches; wt. Bale 400 to 500 lbs.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 30, 1870.

☞ THEO. S. RAMSAY, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

U. S. SENATOR.—The Asheville Citizen speaking of the U. S. Senator, after a flattering notice of Gov. Vance, and expressing its readiness to acquiesce in the selection of any of our able men, says that under the circumstances, it does not doubt that Judge Merrimon is the choice of the West.

Buttermilk cobblers are said to be cooling to the system.—Standard.

As Joe sells something "cooling to the system," we recommend to him to try the "buttermilk cobblers." Any change to a milder beverage would doubtless promote his physical and mental health.

TOURNAMENT.—Our colored Knights have announced a Grand Tournament to come off at the Rayner Grove near this city on Thursday afternoon next, September 1st. For particulars see hand bills.

The SENTINEL is afraid to trust us with contributions, says something about bonds. That penny concern is now an object of public charity, and as in such cases the public never donate very liberally—say five cents a head—there will be little or no inducements for manipulators of bonds.—Again we say send in your change—small favors thankfully received.—Standard.

We know, neighbor, that you like "big hauls" best, but as your chances for them have become "small by degrees and beautifully less," we are not surprised to find that you possess "the ruling passion, strong in death," and offer thanks in advance for "small favors."

ONE BY ONE.—Now that the carcass of poor old North Carolina has been picked to the bare bones, and there is no more hope of future pickings, the vultures that have been preying on her are leaving for their native hills and forests, one by one.—We learn that, some time since, one Whittemore, who had some position in the revenue here, suddenly, or secretly, took a notion to "change his base," which feat he accomplished with the usual Yankee slyness and success, leaving many of our good tradespeople tokens of remembrance in the shape of unliquidated bills. Whether this carpet bagger is a blood relation of the Whittemore of South Carolina, who sold the cadetship, we have no means of knowing; we should judge he is.

So they go; one by one; one by one.

CAPTURE OF DESERTERS.—On Saturday we noticed a squad of Holden's State Troops passing up Fayetteville street, having in charge some five or six "deserters" from the standing army of North Carolina, who, having reaped a sufficiency of military glory in the late campaign, and hearing that an injunction was likely to render pecuniary remuneration problematical, had concluded to return to rural pursuits and repose on their laurels during the remainder of the dog days. (No allusion here to the unexpired term of the present Radical administration.) They are overhauled and brought back at the point of the bayonet, and no doubt made to pay dearly for their want of patriotism in deserting the grand army.

This incident reminds us of another that occurred one night last week. One of the privates in the "State troops" here, for what offense we did not learn, was brought by a guard, at the order of Major Miller, and put in the city guard house gagged. After being in the guard house awhile, he got the rag out of his mouth, on hearing which, although he was making no noise whatever, the Mayor had the gag re-inserted in the poor fellow's mouth. After remaining in the guard house awhile he was taken back to camp. These are the facts related to us by one who claims to know.

Memphis [Tenn.] Appeal, August 17th.

DARTMOUTH COLLEGE.

Generous and unselfish conduct should be honored and appreciated, no matter when or where. The course lately pursued by a celebrated institution of learning in the North, affords an illustration directly in point. Dartmouth College, in New Hampshire, has, for more than a century, held a position not surpassed for science and discipline, and in the distinction attained by its graduates, by any collegiate institution in America. Its historical associations go far back beyond the Revolution. Many of the mighty men of our country were educated there. It was the alma matter of Webster, Woodbury, Choate, Cass, Redfield, Woods, Perly, besides a great many others, the best and brightest men of their day.

This institution has lately done an act which shows that they who preside over its administration are capable of rising above the prejudices and sectional feelings which constitute, unfortunately, the bane of our time. Dartmouth is Congregational in its church tendencies—highly Calvinistic in its theology. Yet it has lately conferred upon one of its graduates in this city, Hon. Robert R. Heath, the high degree of LL. D. (Doctor of Laws). Judge Heath is a member of the Catholic Church. Dartmouth is in the extreme North, and concurs with the political sentiment of that region in its political views. It preserves a "roll of honor" of its sons who served in the Northern army against the South. Judge Heath was a warm and active advocate of the rights of the South, and abided the fortunes of his section and his people, as he had always said he would do.

Dartmouth College, casting aside both religious and national prejudice, has, with the affection of a mother indeed, watched the progress and treasured the ability, moral worth and growing reputation of her far distant son Judge Heath, and has bestowed on him the highest of honorary degrees associated with acculer pursuits. The writer of this has known Judge Heath for thirty years, and knows that the honor was worthily bestowed on him; but it is not for the purpose of complimenting, or drawing special attention to Judge Heath that this is written. It is, that the proper degree of honor and respect may be awarded to old Dartmouth, for her noble and generous course. It shows that neither religious intolerance nor political bitterness find an abiding place within her walls. It shows that she feels proud of the reputation and distinction of her sons, no matter where destiny may fix their abode. This compliment to Judge Heath is a very high one—of which he may well feel proud. At the same time he may well feel proud of his time honored alma matter, for her magnanimous course. JUSTICE.

OUR BALTIMORE FRIENDS.

The following proceedings and correspondence will explain themselves:

Proceedings of a meeting of former citizens of North Carolina, now residing in Baltimore, held at the Maltby House, Friday evening, August 26th, 1870.

On motion, Mr. Bartlett Johnston was called to the chair, and B. J. Best requested to act as Secretary.

The Chairman stated the object of the meeting to be for the purpose of presenting the Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr., Editor of the Raleigh SENTINEL, with a gold headed cane, and appointed a Committee to draft suitable resolutions, consisting of the following gentlemen, (to which, upon motion of Mr. Roulhac, the Chairman was added,) Messrs. P. A. Tatum, W. H. Martindale, Colin M. Hawkins and M. J. Nolley, who, after retiring a few moments, reported the following preamble and resolution, which were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, We, as former citizens of North Carolina, have looked with lively interest upon whatever tended to the weal or woe of our old commonwealth, and as such, have much regretted the tyranny that has long ruled over her. Still, feeling assured, at all times, that her apparent apathy was but the epidemic of noble hearts, have cordially endorsed her course. Among her many prominent men, who have nobly endeavored to vindicate her rights, through the columns of the press, none more justly deserve our esteem and admiration than the Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr., whose course, as a citizen, has always been that of a high toned gentleman, and politician of marked ability; Therefore,

Be it Resolved, That we, ever alive to what is transpiring within our native State, recognize in the Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr., a man who is a true exponent of our views, and one who is always on the alert to condemn the abuses of power. As a testimonial of which, we present him with a cane.

Respectfully submitted,

BARTLETT JOHNSTON, Ch'm.

B. J. BEST, Secretary.

The following letter accompanied the cane:

242, WEST BALTIMORE STREET,
BALTIMORE, MD., Aug. 27, 1870.

Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr.,
Editor Sentinel, Raleigh, N. C.

DEAR SIR:—Allow us, in behalf of the North Carolinians residing in the city of Baltimore, to congratulate you upon your safe return to your family and editorial duties. At a meeting held Friday evening August 26th, it was resolved to present you with a cane, as a token of our high regard for you in your manly defense of the right and your firm and unwavering course in opposition to tyranny in all its forms. We therefore, beg your acceptance of the cane, and hand you herewith a copy of the resolutions of the meeting. Although we are not with you as citizens, still our hearts will ever beat in unison with the good and true men of our native State. Wishing you every success in future, we remain

Very truly and respectfully,
BARTLETT JOHNSTON,
COLIN M. HAWKINS,
P. A. TATUM, Com.
W. H. MARTINDALE,
M. J. NOLLY,

MR. TURNER'S REPLY.

RALEIGH, August 29, 1870.

Bartlett Johnston,
Colin Hawkins and others:

GENTLEMEN:—When you left your old mother State, those who had formerly led in public sentiment and public matters were not allowed even to vote, nor are they to day allowed to serve the people in holding office.

There was then a contest going on between the carpet bag invader and the native born. It was a contest between the proprietor of the house and the robber. The robbers triumphed, the masters of the house were put out and the free-booters put in. A like number of uncaged maniacs could not have been more destructive in their rule.

The robbers in turn on the 4th day of August last were expelled; their strength is now broken and they are no longer powerful for mischief. There are one hundred thousand of your kindred, old neighbors and friends who deserve your commendation and congratulations quite as much as I do. In your name I extend it to them now and here. They did their duty as well as I did. If I did more than they, it was all owing to the advantage in position which I chanced to occupy.

But this should be only a letter of thanks; so I thank you one and all for the handsome gold headed cane, just received. I thank you for the resolutions of commendation and congratulation. I thank you for the flattering letter accompanying them.

Assure each one of my North Carolina friends resident in Baltimore, that I am deeply sensible of the kindness of the motives which prompted them to such action towards me; and I shall never cease to remember with grateful pleasure this mark of their confidence and regard. With every good wish for yourselves and for them, I am your servant and friend,

JOSIAH TURNER, JR.

The Shivering Season.

The loss to the laboring classes of the United States caused by fever and ague, has been estimated at upwards of two million dollars per annum. Whole settlements are sometimes prostrated by the disease, and it is regarded in some localities, as one of those visitations of providence which cannot be avoided. This is a mistake. As certainly as any of the evils which are invited by neglect may be forestalled by precaution—so certainly may an attack of intermittent (or remittent) fever be prevented by invigorating the system with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters in advance of the season, at which this malady prevails. Prevention, it is needless to say, is the wisest policy; but it is consoling to know that where time has not been thus taken by the forelock, and the paroxysms have actually commenced, a complete cure may, in all cases, be rapidly effected by the use of this powerful vegetable tonic. The reputation of the Bitters as a specific for dyspepsia, liver complaint, constipation and nervous debility, has in some measure thrown into the shade its merits as a preventive and cure of other ailments, but all who have ever taken it, either as a protection against or a remedy for malarious fevers, will admit that it surpasses in efficiency all the so-called specifics (containing quinine,) usually prescribed for these maladies, while it is at the same time entirely harmless and decidedly palatable

LONDON, Aug. 30.—The Times says that five German detachments routed six French detachments of cavalry near Buzancy. Failure is not shut up, he has 120,000 men and McMahon has 180,000. They are stealing a march on the Prince Royal, who is two days ahead of Frederick Charles. THE EQUITABLE HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (sum assured), for the year 1869 exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than THIRTEEN MILLION DOLLARS.

In 1860 it was the 9th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1862 and 1863, the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" after THEY HAVE ONCE BEGUN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One Hundred Dollars paid; Dividends at the end of one year, at each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AS THIRTY SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!

PHALON'S

"VITALIA;"

OR,

Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 9th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA, WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York exempt Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers, in looking around for Companies to which to insure, should carefully seek for this important SAFEGUARD. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

CASH ASSETS - - - - - - - - $500,000.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, one decidedly lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

MODERATE CIRCUMSTANCES,

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders all the really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

☞ Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies, in this State who claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the additional privileges of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income in cash through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.
